MILLINERY STYLE BOOK
AND CATALOGUE.

1909 FALL AND WINTER. 1910

New York School of Millinery,

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

THE hats shown on the first ten pages of this book are all imported pattern hats, made from the very best of materials, and are therefore readily recognized as expensive and exclusive models. Any pupil of the NEW YORK SCHOOL OF MILLINERY can readily copy or reproduce any hat shown, in materials which are less expensive, but still have the hat retain its exclusive features. All materials referred to in descriptions may be found in the "Catalogue" section of this book.

Instructions for Ordering Materials

Always send remittance with order. Our terms are strictly cash. We carry no open accounts.

Remittances may be made by Postal Order, Express Order, New York Draft, stamps or money. Individual cheques will not be accepted unless 10c. is included in amount for collection charges. Letters containing money or stamps should be registered.

We prepay express or mailing charges on all orders of $2.50 or over. On orders amounting to less than $2.50, include sufficient amount in your remittance to pay carrying charges. Any excess in remittance will be returned to you promptly.

State whether you wish materials sent by mail or express and give name of express company in your city or village.

When ordering from catalogue state plainly number of order or material desired, quantity and color.

Always make a second or third choice to be sent in event of first choice being sold out, as the stock is changing rapidly from day to day and it would be impossible to prevent some numbers from being sold out.

If you do not find what you want in the catalogue, write us, describing article or material and send sample if possible. If we are unable to fill your orders from stock we make every effort to secure goods from other dealers and employ expert shoppers for this purpose.

We can supply you with anything that is used in Millinery. Don't hesitate to write us.

We guarantee all goods to be exactly as shown or described in catalogue.

Our references are the National Bank of Commerce of Rochester, N. Y., and any Express Company.
